The new edition of the guide of Jerusalem, which has been completely renewed in its graphics and enriched with the precious chine of Sem Galimberti. It is an indispensable guide for those who wish to know all the ancient secrets that this magical city contains, the centre of the world. Centuries of history are still visible in the narrow streets, palaces, monuments, walls but also in the colors, in the faces of the inhabitants, in the scents and flavors of the souks, and in the palpable contrasts between one district and another.

The text describes in detail the lesser known of the four districts of the Old City, whilst the unraveling of routes, from door to door, allows you to retain even the smallest detail. An indispensable tool for those who want to experience the thrill of making one's own the very heart of the most disputed city in the world, the summary of all the information that one would want to find in a lively text, a companion of travel and adventure.

A written dragoman that, page by page, tells the reader what he can find of himself in the narrow streets of a city that for centuries has determined the development of human society in its entirety.
